But there is something else to look forward to as well, beginning June 5. That is the day our congregation will dedicate our new hymnal, Glory to God. Under the leadership of their very excited director Diane Starost, our children and youth will sing a new/old hymn from it. The music was written in the Taizé monastic community in France in 1978. The tune—that will be sung as a round—you may not recognize—but the lyrics, you will. For they are some of Mary’s words she spoke when she visited her relative, Elizabeth (Luke 1: 39–56), telling Elizabeth she is pregnant with the Son of God. In some circles, those words are known as the Magnificat.

That Sunday, we’ll sing new hymns not currently in our blue hymnal as well as one that has been part of our tradition for more than a hundred years, “Be Thou My Vision.” We will also be singing two hymns as part of our celebration of communion that morning. One, “Holy, Holy, Holy” is known as a “sanctus,” and “Christ Has Died; Christ Is Rise,” is a “memorial acclamation,” both traditional and ancient communion liturgy used in many mainline Protestant/Presbyterian congregations. The lyrics will be very familiar to you—up to now, we have said them as part of our celebration of communion. But on June 5, we will sing them as they are meant to be—as they are now in our new hymnal. The tune of the sanctus and memorial acclamation, “Land of Rest,” will likely also be familiar to you—an American folk melody.

Why a new hymnal? Well, the “former” new hymnal—the blue one that presently rests in our pew racks, was introduced in 1990. In The Presbyterian Leader, Mary Louise Bringle reports that over the last decades of the twentieth century and the first decades of the twenty-first century, there has been a “hymn explosion,” an unprecedented outpouring of creativity. What’s more, tunes and texts from all around the globe have become available for use as never before. (The 1990 hymnal was a leader in its time in providing resources for songs and hymns other than European and Anglo-American hymns. Glory to God builds on that tradition of including music and hymns from around the world—for example, there are hymns from seven Asian countries; eleven African nations as well as hymns from Latin America, the Middle East and New Zealand. The new hymnal also uses the original language for many hymns written in non-Roman alphabets—those hymns are printed in the original language.)

FROM THE INTERIM PASTOR’S STUDY

We have a lot to look forward to this year! Our PNC is up and running at full throttle writing the Ministry Information Form that will circulate around the denomination with all of our good news about Old First. Ministers will read it and decide to throw their hat into the ring. What’s not to love?

The Capital Campaign is busy receiving and thanking you for your pledge that will enable many things to happen this year and next. The restoration of our 5-story steeple, a new and improved kitchen and Parish Hall, and a smooth and even parking lot plus walkways.

Of course, we have summer to look forward to beginning, well, hopefully, soon. There’s nothing better than summer on Long Island!

In response to this great outpouring of new music, denominations generally convene a committee on a generational basis such as ours, “The Presbyterian Committee on Congregational Song.” (A “generational basis” is from twenty to twenty-five years.) In the present era then, every two decades in recent memory, church groups look back over their song collections—winnowing out those older pieces that have fallen out of common usage and those newer ones that never caught on. For example, one hymn that was left out of a newer hymnal include that once-valued hymn, “Ah, Wretched Vile, Ungrateful Heart.” (Thank goodness!)

Such winnowing also makes room for a new hymnal to add material written or rediscovered since the previous hymnal. For example, quick as a wink, can you finish the lines of these hymns included in the 1990 hymnal?

*Then sings my soul, my Savior, God to Thee, (how great thou art, how great thou art ... )

*Lift high (the cross, the love of Christ proclaim ... )

*Here I am, Lord. Is it I, Lord? (I have heard you calling in the night ... )

Now, the first two hymns are “old hymns” that were rediscovered in that hymnal. The third is a new hymn that was introduced in that same hymnal. (I can’t imagine not having that evocative hymn sung on days we install officers, commission a PNC or confirm our youth!)

Mary Louise Bringle also cites a final reason for a “new hymnal,” – the ongoing inspiration of the Holy Spirit—that same Spirit who inspired the prophets and apostles and who rules our faith and life. A new hymnal provides access to this ongoing inspiration. The good news is that the great hymns of our faith remain in Glory to God, along with many “new/old” hymns for us to learn and relearn. I can hardly wait to explore it in the months to come!

Friends! Come to sing and rejoice and be inspired by the gift of our new hymnal on June 5!

Faithfully,
Rev. Anne
Interim Pastor

Youth Ministry Update

Hello Church family!

We have had a blast this month with Youth Group and TUXIS. Though things were busy with spring break, AP testing, and SATs, our youth were involved and present with so much laughter and love!

With Youth Group, we made springtime crafts such as flowers out of cupcake tins and continued to decorate our craft room upstairs. This month we have enjoyed theatrical group games such as musical chairs, survivor, and a game called “Museum” which encourages movement and hilarious wit. We had a relay race on the front lawn, practiced our hand-eye coordination with soccer-tag and loved playing with a few teen volunteers! None of this compares to our favorite time this month: Making tacos and homemade oreos with Reverend Anne! We especially enjoyed making our own meal while laughing and telling stories from school.

We will have a Youth Group party on June 1st to celebrate the end of the year! Gloria so generously is making our favorite dinner – homemade chicken nuggets! Teens are invited to help out with lawn games and group activities!

As for TUXIS, our Caumsett trip was unfortunately cancelled due to “April Showers bring May flowers,” and we’re working on rescheduling! Our teens had a busy spring with crew regattas, AP testing, SATs, and spring sports. We supported one another through group sharing and prayer. Together, we had a great time helping with the Mothers Day plant sale and enjoyed a trip down into the vault with Bernard (and the moles!) It was fascinating to learn the history of the church and the bell story was one of our favorites. Thank you to everyone who has made these events possible!

We are still coordinating with end-of-school schedules but this summer we have a great line up of events such as an overnight at the church, Caumsett hike, paddle boarding adventure, and hopefully a retreat!

We will have TUXIS: Sunday May 29, Sunday June 5th, and Sunday June 12th from 6:30-8pm!

Tina
Capital Campaign Giving Update

Pledges are coming for the Old First Restoration and Preservation Capital Campaign! Have you sent in yours? If you haven’t, please do so now. It is so important that all of our members and friends of Old First pull together to make this capital campaign a success. We are looking for 100% pledging participation from our members. Materials were mailed to members during April. If you haven’t received them, please call the church office and they will be mailed to you immediately. Alternatively, the materials, along with a pledge form is available on the Old First website www.oldfirstchurchhuntington.org. Remember your pledge is payable over three years.

Recently Bernard Reverdin welcomed our teen TUXIS group into the Vault to learn more about OFC history. Bernard told the story of how a parishioner hid our steeple’s bell at his home during the Revolutionary War so the British couldn’t get it. How brave and inspiring! We hope you are also inspired by those that came before us and how they helped to shape Old First. It’s our turn to move Old First forward. Send in your pledge and be a part of Old First’s future. (The British did end up confiscating the bell…but we got it back.)

Project Update

While we await the start of the Steeple restoration, the Trustees have been actively working on other planned projects in the Church. The kitchen committee of Sandy Lange, Gloria Burgess, Gail Johnson and Cindy Samuels are obtaining bids to replace the floor, and purchase and install new appliances (all of which are 20-50 years old and well past their expected life). The Trustees have approved a plan to replace most of the lighting in the Church building with LED fixtures over the next 6 months. We anticipate this will save us $5000/year or more in electricity costs. And the Fiske Room Committee of Bev Elliott, Marge Sammis and Cindy Samuels are working on a solution to improve the lighting in the Fiske Room.

If you ever have any questions on the Capital Campaign or the renovations taking place in and around Old First, please call the Church office and someone from the Capital Campaign Committee or the Trustees will get back to you.

Blessings,
The Capital Campaign Committee
The Trustees

Church School News

It’s hard to believe it’s the end of the church school year! We’ve had a lot of fun and learned a lot about the Bible. And we completed four mission projects - donations to LI Cares and The Guide Dog Foundation as well as collecting items for the Mitten Tree and "Soaper" Bowl Sunday.

There are a few people we’d like to thank for assisting us throughout the year - Jared Ponzetti, Doug Terc and Katie Dopico. We are very happy to announce that Katie will be joining us next year as a superintendent. We would also like to thank Carole Witkowski for organizing the Children’s Moments and all of the people who spoke so well to the children.

Hopefully we will see many of the children this August (the 22nd - 26th) during Vacation Bible School. We have a fun week scheduled exploring Living Water.

Hygiene Kits
Once again Presbyterian Women held the spring hygiene kits drive in April and early May.

Hygiene kits go to people who have been displaced from their homes after a natural disaster. In 2015 over 100,000 kits went worldwide and across our nation to victims of floods, hurricanes, earthquakes, fires, etc. This year there have already been an unfortunate number of natural disasters and you can be assured that Church World Service is there helping people. They distribute the hygiene kits, as well as cleanup buckets, school kits, and other aids.

With the generous donations from our congregation, PW is once again able to send a wonderful donation to Church World Service this year for the hygiene kits program.

THANK YOU,
