Worship Services: Sundays at 10:00 a.m.
One thing baffling me about the resurrection of Jesus was how quiet it was. In all of the Gospels, the story indicates that when Jesus appeared He did so to a very limited group of people in an out of the way place like a garden or in a locked room. Maybe I am just a bit vain, but if I was the one resurrected I might have showed up at Pilate’s palace or Caiphas’ house with trumpets blazing and angels doing skywriting saying you did your best, but I am still alive. But no, it was quiet. Why?

I have to wonder if Jesus had a very subtle message for us. That message is that encounters with Jesus are frequently in quiet places with not a lot of people watching. In other words, our encounters with the resurrected Jesus are unexpected, in places we would not expect, and perhaps through people whom we would not view as bringing Christ to us. Here is an example. A few hours before I wrote this article I had to drop off some forms for Abigail’s impending surgery. While intellectually I know that having tonsils and adenoids out is not a big deal, I got worried and sad that she would have the surgery. I went to lunch at Munds, and as I sat there the waitress noticed I seemed a bit upset. She knows I have children and wanted to see how they were, and I told her about Abigail. She immediately reassured me that it was going to be ok, as did the table next to me, and the table besides me. I felt better not only because I felt supported, but also because as I left I had to wonder if Christ was working through these people in a very unexpected place at a very unexpected time to comfort me. Maybe Christ does the same thing for you.

There is another point here which is that we need to be vigilant for such encounters for they may be quick and come and go unlike the winter we have been having. The Civil Air Patrol has a motto which is semper vigilans or always vigilant. I encourage all of you to follow that motto in regards to encountering Christ for as the Easter story shows, the encounter will be in an unexpected place possibly through a person you were not expected. Happy Easter and semper vigilans.

Blessings,

Andy

Love never ends...
(1 Corinthians 13:8)

If you haven’t already submitted the dates for your birthday and anniversary, please let the church office know as soon as possible so we can list them in the Weathervane for the appropriate months. Please note that since there is no Weathervane for the months of January, July, and August, these special days will be listed in the previous months’ issues.
Keep in Touch …

...When going to Huntington Hospital, be sure you list “Old First Presbyterian Church” as your church. Hospital workers provide lists of Protestants and Presbyterians, but often do not know what “Old First’s” affiliation may be.

...If you are aware of a member in the hospital, please let us know. Many people are admitted through emergency and will not appear on any church lists. Your minister is there often and wants to call on you.

Please help by informing the church. We care.

Community Food Council

The Community Food Council is in need of donations of non-perishable food items, canned goods and items such as toilet paper, which are not covered by food stamps. Please bring in your donations on communion Sunday—Paper Goods and Canned Fruit. Thank you for your generous donations.

If anyone has not been receiving the weekly e-mail updates, please let the church office know. Thank you.

(Ephesians 6:18)

Thank You

Thank you for your prayers for Desire, my Ugandan “Grandson”. After three months in the hospital, 2 Halo procedures (metal brace screwed to skull to stabilize head and neck) with weights attached to stretch spine, two 12-14 hour surgical procedures, followed by rehab. He can now fully expand his lungs and abdominal organs are as they should be. He is now back in Uganda as he says, “I am Straight”. Thank you all. Peg Weigers.

I can only say “thank you”. Thank you for all you kind notes, calls, and invitations that I received before I moved on Tuesday, February 11th to Silver Spring, Maryland.

I was overwhelmed by a time frame because I sold my house to a young neighbor (who had played in our circle) two days after I mentioned to another neighbor that I had decided to move!

I have a lovely apartment, am near Ken & family, but miss Ed, our sixty years in Dix Hills, old times in Huntington, Old First, and my friends!

My best to all and hope to keep in touch.

Love,
Bev (Thomas)

PS. Clean out now! I have many, too many boxes in storage near by!
HAVE YOU NAMED OLD FIRST CHURCH IN YOUR WILL?

By naming Old First Presbyterian Church in your will, you will have a direct effect in the ongoing ministry of Old First Church for many years to come. Below is information to help you include Old First Church in your estate planning. It is recommended that you obtain the professional advice of your attorney.

Leaving a Bequest to Old First Presbyterian Church

A bequest in your will allows you to pass any amount you wish to Old First Presbyterian Church free of estate tax. Bequests can take various forms. You can give cash or specific property, a dollar amount or a percentage of your estate, with restrictions or without. To make a bequest to Old First Presbyterian Church, please include one of the following in your will:

General Bequest

A general bequest is one of the most popular ways to make a planned gift. Through a general bequest, you simply leave a specified dollar amount to Old First Church.

"I give _____ (insert dollar amount) to Old First Presbyterian Church, 125 Main St, Huntington, NY 11743 as an unrestricted gift."

Percentage of Estate/Residuary Bequest

Giving a percentage of your estate or a residuary bequest is used to give Old First Church all or a portion of your property, after all debts, taxes, expenses and all other bequests have been paid.

"I give ___% of my estate to Old First Presbyterian Church, 125 Main St., Huntington, NY 11743 after all debts, taxes, expenses and all other bequests have been paid as an unrestricted gift."

SUNDAY SCHOOL NEWS

We are all eagerly awaiting warm weather and Spring flowers as April approaches! The children have all been busy learning their New Testament lessons and the significance of the Holy Trinity.

We are continuing to collect change for One Great Hour of Sharing all throughout Lent and are eagerly anticipating the arrival of Palm Sunday. The Senior Highs and Confirmation class will be hiding over 300 eggs on our front lawn for the younger children to find immediately after worship on April 13th. Please join us for this fun family event!

We are also making Easter pictures for the home-bound members of our congregation to be delivered by the Deacons with the Easter plants. Many special projects are planned to help facilitate the teachings of Jesus and His resurrection.

Please welcome Kathryn Donegan to our Crib/Nursery Room staff. Kathryn is here every Sunday from 9:30 – 11:30 am to help care for our youngest children from 6 months to age 3 while the parents enjoy worship in the Sanctuary. Children ages 4 and above can join us in Assembly after the Children’s Sermon before going to their individual classes.

We are also excited that we will be having Vacation Bible School this summer, August 25 – 29th, led by Bob & Pat Miller. Please save these dates for a fun-filled church camp experience!

The Holy Week Leading Up To Easter
Here is a quick rundown on the long journey of penance and fasting that leads up to the great celebration of Easter.

Ash Wednesday: The penance or period of fasting begins on Ash Wednesday.
Lent: This is a forty-day period of penance and fasting to share the grief borne by Jesus Christ by self-denial. Lent goes on for 46 days because Sundays are the day of resurrection and hence exempt from Lent.
Palm Sunday: This is the last Sunday of Lent and the first day of the Holy Week.
This is the day when Jesus rode triumphantly into Jerusalem where he was welcomed with open arms. It is also the basis for the Palm Sunday processions.
The Holy Monday & Tuesday: The cleansing of the temple at Jerusalem supposedly took place on Holy Monday. It is also the day when Jesus reprimanded the moneychangers. The Holy Tuesday is the day when the famous incident between Jesus and Pharisees supposedly took place where an attempt was made to get Jesus to commit blasphemy.
Spy Wednesday: This is the day when Judas Iscariot, a disciple of Jesus who betrayed him told the chief priests where they could find Jesus.
Maundy Thursday: This is the day of the last supper before crucifixion.
Good Friday: The day when Jesus was crucified outside the walls of Jerusalem, at the top of Calvary hill. This day is marked by solemn thoughts, fasting and abstinence to commemorate the pain and suffering of Jesus.
Easter Eve: This is the Holy Saturday and Easter Eve. It is a traditional time for baptism.
Easter Sunday: Finally the day of resurrection and the big feast. Jesus rose from the dead after crucifixion. He also joined his disciples for a meal and told them to carry on his works in his absence. Thus, there are many smaller celebrations that lead up to the biggest feast of all on Easter.

EASTER SUNDAY
Did you ever wonder why Easter never falls on the same date every year? Some years it is as early as March and some years as late as near the end of April.

Determining the date of Easter - Easter falls on the first Sunday following the full moon after the vernal equinox on March 21. Therefore, Easter is observed anywhere between March 22 and April 25 every year.
The beautiful Easter flowers which decorate our sanctuary on Easter Sunday have a dual purpose. Not only do they symbolize God’s promise of rebirth, but they enable us to share this joyous spirit with the sick and homebound among our church family.

If you would like to provide flowers for these purposes, please fill out the form below and send it to:

Presbyterian Women
Old First Church
125 Main Street
Huntington, NY 11743

The cost of purchasing an Easter flower is $15 per plant. Please indicate how many plants you want to donate, and indicate whether you would care to bring your lily home with you or would like to donate it to the church for distribution to our infirm church members.

All requests must be in by Palm Sunday, April 13th.

We would like to thank all those who contribute to making our sanctuary a place of beauty and spiritual joy for Easter Sunday.
